

The PARENTING WINDOW - Which QUADRANT reflects your style?

FREE DISCUSSION GROUP SESSION

by Mark Le Messurier
2022 SA Australian Senior of the Year

This workshop is personal. I have designed it, so you can quietly contemplate your parenting style. I want you to think about why you manage the kids in the way you do. My goal is to inspire your relationship with your children, so it thrives. And along the way, I will provide many practical ideas and techniques to help you communicate, lead, and manage in optimal ways.

So what is your parenting style? Can you name it? What does it sound like?

Are you a terrier constantly barking at the kids and nipping at their heels?

Or do you parent with the patience of a saint and let too much go?

Or do you set out each day with the best of intentions only to stumble, blow up and become frustrated at yourself?

Whatever it is, why do you manage this way? And what is your natural disposition when the kids will not listen and take behaviours too far? Is the place you are working from healthy and sustainable for you, your partner, and the kids.
